Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. We intend such forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). All statements other than statements of historical facts contained in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q including without limitation, statements regarding our business model and strategic plans, including the introduction of new products, and our implementation thereof; statements regarding our expectations, beliefs, plans, objectives, prospects, assumptions, future events or expected performance, including our ability to compete in our industry; the sufficiency of our cash, cash equivalents and investments; expectations around the Company's acquisitions and strategic transactions; and the plans and objectives of management for future operations and capital expenditures are forward-looking statements.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, you can identify forward-looking statements because they contain words such as "may," "will," "shall," "should," "expects," "plans," "anticipates," "could," "intends," "target," "projects," "contemplates," "believes," "estimates," "predicts," "potential," "goal," "objective," "seeks," or "continue" or the negative of these words or other similar terms or expressions that concern our expectations, strategy, plans, or intentions. Such forward-looking statements are neither promises nor guarantees, but involve a number of known and unknown risks, uncertainties and assumptions that may cause our actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements due to various factors, including, but not limited to:

- our ability to retain and grow our users and sustain their engagement with our products;
- competition in the online language learning industry;
- our ability to maintain profitability;
- the impact on our income as a result of the release of valuation allowances on deferred tax assets;
- our expectations regarding fluctuations in our effective tax rate, including changes to valuation allowances, and the adequacy of our reserves;
- our ability to manage our growth and operate at such scale;
- the success of our investments;
- our ability to accurately predict our quarterly operating results and other operating metrics;
- our ability to accurately measure our user metrics and other operating metrics;
- our reliance on third-party platforms to store and distribute our products and collect revenue;
- the success of our development, implementation and use of artificial intelligence ("AI") and machine learning technologies;
- our reliance on third-party hosting, cloud computing providers and AI vendors;
- our ability to compete for advertisements;
- acceptance by educational organizations of technology-based education;
- changes in our business and macroeconomic conditions;

- the accuracy of market research published about the Company by third-party data scraping services;
- those identified in Part I, Item 2. “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q; and
- those identified in Part I, Item 1A. “Risk Factors” and Part II, Item 7. “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025 (the “Annual Report on Form 10-K”).

We caution you that the foregoing list does not contain all of the forward-looking statements made in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

You should not rely upon forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. We have based the forward-looking statements contained in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q primarily on our current expectations, estimates, forecasts, and projections about future events and trends that we believe may affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. These statements are based upon information available to us as of the date of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and, although we believe that we have a reasonable basis for each forward-looking statement contained in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, such information may be limited or incomplete, and our statements should not be read to indicate that we have conducted an exhaustive inquiry into, or review of, all potentially available relevant information. We cannot guarantee that the future results, levels of activity, performance, or events and circumstances reflected in the forward-looking statements will be achieved or occur at all. Moreover, we operate in a very competitive and rapidly changing environment. The results, events, and circumstances reflected in the forward-looking statements may not be achieved or occur, and actual results, events, or circumstances could differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. You should not place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements.

The forward-looking statements made in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q relate only to events as of the date on which the statements are made. While we may elect to update such forward-looking statements at some point in the future, unless required by applicable law, we disclaim any obligation to do so, even if subsequent events cause our views to change.

You should read this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and the documents that we reference in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q completely and with the understanding that our actual future results may be materially different from what we expect. We qualify all of the forward-looking statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q by these cautionary statements.

Unless the context otherwise requires, all references in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q to “Duolingo,” the “Company”, “we,” “our,” “us,” or similar terms refer to Duolingo, Inc. and its subsidiaries.

Special Note Regarding Key Operating Metrics

We manage our business by tracking several operating metrics, including daily active users (DAUs), paid subscribers, subscription bookings, and total bookings. We believe each of these operating metrics provides useful information to investors and others. For information concerning these metrics as measured by us, see Part I, Item 2. “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Key Operating Metrics and Non-GAAP Financial Measures.”

While these metrics are based on what we believe to be reasonable estimates of our user base for the applicable period of measurement, there are inherent challenges in measuring how our platform is used. These metrics are determined by using internal data gathered on an analytics platform that we developed and operate and have not been validated by an independent third party. This platform tracks user account and session activity. If we fail to maintain an effective analytics platform, our metrics calculations may be inaccurate.

We believe that these metrics are reasonable estimates of our user base for the applicable period of measurement, and that the methodologies we employ and update from time to time to create these metrics are reasonable bases to identify trends in user behavior. Because we update the methodologies we employ to create metrics, our operating metrics may not be comparable to those in prior periods. See “Risk Factors—Our user metrics and other operating metrics are subject to inherent challenges in measurement, and real or perceived inaccuracies in those metrics may negatively affect our reputation and our business” included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K. Other companies, including companies in our industry, may calculate these metrics differently.

DUOLINGO, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

NOTES TO THE UNAUDITED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. DESCRIPTION OF THE BUSINESS AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Duolingo, Inc. (the "Company" or "Duolingo") was formed on August 18, 2011, and the Duolingo App was launched to the general public on June 19, 2012. The Company's headquarters are located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Duolingo is a mobile learning platform, as well as a digital English language proficiency assessment exam. The Company has a freemium business model: the app and the website are accessible free of charge, although Duolingo also offers premium services for a subscription fee. As of the date of this filing, Duolingo offers over 250 total language courses, including Spanish, English, French, German, Italian, Portuguese, Japanese and Chinese. We have locations in the U.S., China, Germany and the United Kingdom.

Principles of Consolidation—The Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements include the accounts of the Company and subsidiaries over which the Company has control. All intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

Basis of Presentation—The accompanying Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the U.S. ("GAAP") from the Company's accounting records and reflect the consolidated financial position and results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025.

The Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). Certain information and note disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such SEC rules. We believe that the disclosures made are adequate to make the information presented not misleading. In our opinion, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation of the financial statements have been included, and all adjustments are of a normal and recurring nature. We applied the accounting policies consistently with those used in the preparation of the Annual Report on Form 10-K in preparing these Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. These Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements and the notes for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025 included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K and filed with the SEC.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting Principles—The Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements and accompanying notes are prepared in accordance with GAAP.

Use of Estimates—The preparation of Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements and accompanying notes. Significant estimates and assumptions reflected in the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements include, but are not limited to, useful lives of property and equipment, valuation of deferred tax assets and liabilities, stock-based compensation, operating lease right-of-use assets and liabilities, capitalization of internally developed software and associated useful lives, contingent liabilities, and valuation of goodwill and intangible assets from acquisitions. Actual results may differ materially from such estimates. Management believes that the estimates, and judgments upon which they rely, are reasonable based upon information available to them at the time that these estimates and judgments are made. To the extent that there are material differences between these estimates and actual results, the Company's Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements will be affected.

Advertising Costs—Advertising costs were approximately $28.0 million and $84.4 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, and $25.5 million and $62.7 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, respectively, and are included within Sales and marketing in the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income.

Income Taxes—The Company's provision for income taxes is computed by using an estimate of the annual effective tax rate, adjusted for discrete items taken into account in the relevant period, if any. Each quarter, the annual effective income tax rate is recomputed and if there are material changes in the estimate, a cumulative adjustment is made.

Concentration of Credit Risk—The Company's concentration of credit risk relates to financial institutions holding the Company's cash and cash equivalents and platforms with significant accounts receivable balances and revenue transactions.

The Company maintains deposits and certificates of deposit with banks which exceed the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") insured limit and money market accounts which are not FDIC insured. Management believes that the financial institutions that hold the Company's deposits are financially creditworthy and, accordingly, minimal credit risk exists with respect to those balances.

The majority of revenue comes through the subscriptions and advertising streams, and payments are made to Duolingo through service providers. Two service providers, Apple and Google, accounted for 69.9% and 13.9%, respectively, of total Accounts receivable as of September 30, 2026 and three service providers, Apple, Google, and Stripe, accounted for 62.5%, 22.7% and 11.4%, respectively, of total Accounts receivable as of December 31, 2025.

Segment—The Company operates as a single operating segment and derives revenues from customers through time-based subscriptions, in-app advertising placement by third parties, the Duolingo English Test, and in-app purchases of virtual goods ("IAPs"). The Chief Executive Officer, as the chief operating decision maker, evaluates the Company's performance and allocates resources based on consolidated net income, as presented in the income statement, supplemented by disaggregated revenue details. Significant segment expenses are those that are presented on the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income. The measure of segment assets is reported on the balance sheet as total consolidated assets. Accordingly, the Company has determined that it has a single reportable segment and operating segment structure, and operates as one reporting unit.

Impairment of long-lived assets—The Company reviews its long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. If the sum of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to result from the use and eventual disposition of an asset is less than the carrying amount of the asset, an impairment loss is recognized. Measurement of an impairment loss is based on the fair value of the asset. The Company recorded an impairment of capitalized software of $1.6 million and $2.1 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, respectively, and no impairment was recognized during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025.

Allowance for Credit Losses—The Company evaluates its cash equivalents, accounts receivable and held-to-maturity marketable securities financial assets for expected credit losses. Expected credit losses represent the portion of the amortized cost basis of a financial asset that an entity does not expect to collect. An allowance for expected credit losses is meant to reflect a risk of loss even if remote, irrespective of the expectation of collection from a particular issuer or debt security. The Company has not historically experienced any credit losses on any of its financial assets.

With respect to cash equivalents and accounts receivable, given consideration of their short maturity, lack of historical losses and the current environment, the Company concluded there is generally no expected credit losses for these financial assets. With respect to held-to-maturity marketable securities which are comprised of debt securities, the Company evaluates expected credit losses on a pooled basis based on issuer-type which have similar credit risk characteristics. There is no allowance for credit losses for all periods presented.

Related Parties—The Company incurred expenses with a vendor which certain members of the Company's Board of Directors and executive officers serve as members of the vendor's board of directors of approximately $0.2 million and $0.6 million during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, respectively, and $0.2 million and $0.5 million during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, respectively. As of September 30, 2026, no amounts were payable to the vendor, and as of December 31, 2025, $0.8 million remained payable to the vendor. These transactions were conducted in the ordinary course of business on terms the Company believes to be comparable to those available from unaffiliated third parties and were reviewed and approved in accordance with the Company's related person transaction policy.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Recently Issued Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

In November 2024, the FASB issued ASU 2024-03, Income Statement-Reporting Comprehensive Income-Expense Disaggregation Disclosures (Subtopic 220-40): Disaggregation of Income Statement Expenses. The amendment requires new financial statement disclosures to provide disaggregated information for certain types of expenses, including employee compensation, depreciation, and amortization in commonly presented expense captions such as cost of revenue, sales and marketing, and general and administrative expenses. The amendments in this ASU are effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2026, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2027. The Company is currently evaluating the disclosure requirements related to the new standard.

In September 2025, the FASB issued ASU 2025-06, Intangibles—Goodwill and Other—Internal-Use Software (Subtopic 350-40): Targeted Improvements to the Accounting for Internal-Use Software. The amendments in this update remove all references to prescriptive and sequential software development stages (referred to as "project stages") throughout Subtopic 350-40. The amendments in this update are effective for all entities for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2027, and interim reporting periods within those annual reporting periods. The Company is in the process of evaluating the effect that the adoption of this standard may have on its consolidated financial statements.

3. FAIR VALUE

The Company applies the following fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value into three levels and bases the categorization within the hierarchy upon the lowest level of input that is available and significant to the fair value measurement:

Level 1—Observable inputs such as quoted prices in active markets for identical investments that the Company has the ability to access.

Level 2—Inputs include:

- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs, other than quoted prices in active markets, which are observable either directly or indirectly;
- Inputs that are derived principally from, or corroborated by, observable market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3—Unobservable inputs in which there is little or no market activity for the asset or liability, which require the reporting entity to develop its own estimates and assumptions relating to the pricing of the asset or liability including assumptions regarding risk.

The following table presents amortized cost, gross unrealized gains and losses, and fair value by major security type and balance sheet classification as of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025:

As of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, all of the Company's short-term investments have contractual maturities of one year or less and all of the Company's long-term investments have contractual maturities between one and five years. The Company has elected to present accrued interest within Prepaid expenses and other current assets in the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets. Accrued interest was $1.9 million and $2.1 million as of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively.

Changes in market interest rates, credit risk of borrowers and overall market liquidity, among other factors, may cause the short-term and long-term debt investments to fall below their amortized cost basis, resulting in unrealized losses. For those debt securities in an unrealized loss position as of September 30, 2026, the Company does not intend to sell, nor is it more likely than not that it will be required to sell, such securities before recovering the amortized cost basis. No allowance for credit losses was recognized in the financial statements for held-to-maturity debt securities for the periods ended September 30, 2026 and 2025.

4. ACQUISITIONS

On August 11, 2026, the Company completed the acquisition of certain assets of Animade Group Limited. Animade was a London-based animation and motion design studio. The acquisition expands Duolingo's Design Studio by adding an established and experienced animation and motion design team.

The total aggregate transaction-related payments are expected to be $5.5 million, consisting of $5.0 million of purchase consideration paid in cash upon closing and $0.5 million of additional payments to certain employees contingent upon one year of continued service. The $5.0 million purchase consideration has been preliminarily allocated to goodwill. The service-contingent payments will be recognized as compensation expense over the service period within General and administrative expense in the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income.

The Company incurred $0.2 million of acquisition-related due diligence costs, which are included in General and administrative expense in the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income.

The purchase price allocation remains preliminary and is subject to finalization.

5. REVENUE

Disaggregation of Revenue

In accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, the Company disaggregates revenue from contracts with customers into revenue streams, which most closely depict how the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows are affected by economic factors.

Three service providers, Apple, Google, and Stripe processed 59.6%, 23.3%, and 12.1%, and 59.8%, 23.1%, and 11.8%, respectively, of total revenues for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, respectively. Two service providers, Apple and Google, processed 62.2% and 23.3%, and three service providers, Apple, Google, and Stripe processed 61.6%, 23.5% and 10.1%, respectively, of total revenues for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, respectively.

Deferred revenue consists of payments received in advance of revenue recognition, and is mostly related to time-based subscriptions, which will be recognized into revenue over the course of the upcoming year (recognized over 12 months or less). Additionally, the Duolingo English Test has deferred revenue related to tests that have been purchased, but will not be recognized until the tests have been proctored. Changes in deferred revenues were as follows:

	Nine Months Ended September 30,
(In thousands)	2026	2025

The Company capitalized $8.7 million and $6.3 million of software development costs, with the majority of the costs being employee wages, during the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively. The Company recorded an impairment of capitalized software of $1.6 million and $2.1 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, respectively, which represents an impairment to write off the capitalization of an internal-use software project prior to being launched to the user base. No impairment was recognized during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025. Amortization expense is included within the following financial statement line items within the Company's Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income.

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,

	Carrying amount
Balance as of December 31, 2025	$ 35,335
Acquisitions	5,006
Balance as of September 30, 2026	$ 40,341

As of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, $16.8 million and $17.7 million, respectively, of goodwill is deductible for tax purposes.

8. INCOME TAXES

Year-to-date income tax expense or benefit is the product of the most current projected annual effective tax rate and the actual year-to-date pretax income, adjusted for any discrete items. The income tax expense or benefit for a particular quarter is the difference between the current year-to-date calculation and the amount recognized in prior quarters of the same year, plus any discrete items recognized in that quarter. Items unrelated to current-period ordinary income or loss are recognized entirely in the period identified as discrete items of tax.

For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, discrete items include tax expense related to stock-based compensation awards that vested at market prices below grant prices.

In the prior-year period, the effective tax rate was primarily impacted by the release of the valuation allowance on the Company's federal and state deferred tax assets and other discrete tax benefits.

The Company's income before taxes, income tax provision or benefit and effective tax rates were as follows. The large variance in the effective tax rate between periods primarily reflects the recognition of the valuation-allowance release and other discrete tax benefits in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025.

(In thousands, except percentages)	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2026	2025	2026	2025

Options exercisable at September 30, 2026	482	$ 20.36	3.44	$ 59,481

(1) There were no stock options granted during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026.
(2) There was a nominal amount of forfeitures and expirations during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026.

The total intrinsic value of options exercised was approximately $40.7 million and $189.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

A summary of RSU activity as of September 30, 2026 is as follows:

(In thousands, except prices)	Restricted stock units	Weighted-average grant-date fair value per share
Outstanding at January 1, 2026	1,406	$ 242.94
Granted	2,147	113.27
Released	(656)	177.86
Forfeited	(259)	206.98
Outstanding at September 30, 2026	2,638	$ 157.07

As of September 30, 2026, there was no unrecognized stock-based compensation expense related to stock options granted under the plans. The amount of unrecognized stock-based compensation expense for RSUs as of September 30, 2026 was $375.8 million with a weighted-average period of approximately three years.

There were 9,209 thousand shares available for issuance under the Company's 2021 Incentive Award Plan and 1,604 thousand shares available for issuance under the Company's 2021 Employee Stock Purchase Plan, in each case, at September 30, 2026.

Performance-based RSUs

In June 2021, the Company granted performance-based RSUs to its founders ("Founder Awards") that vest based on continued service and the achievement of specified stock price targets. As of September 30, 2026, certain performance conditions have been achieved, while others remain subject to future stock price performance. Stock-based compensation expense is recognized over the derived service period using an accelerated attribution method, subject to continued service.

In 2026, the Company modified the service condition applicable to the final two tranches of the Founder Awards held by one of its founders. The modification was accounted for as a Type III modification under ASC 718. As a result of the revised service condition, the Company reversed $8.2 million of stock-based compensation expense previously recognized under the original derived service periods. The modified awards have a total compensation cost of approximately $10.0 million, based on the modified fair value determined using a Monte Carlo simulation model, representing an increase of $1.7 million, over the original grant-date fair value. The total compensation cost will be recognized over the revised derived service periods, which extend through September 30, 2029.

The Company recognized a stock-based compensation expense of $1.7 million and a stock-based compensation benefit of $4.1 million related to the Founder Awards during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, respectively. The Company recognized stock-based compensation expense of $1.7 million and $9.8 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, respectively. As of September 30, 2026, unrecognized stock-based compensation expense related to the Founder Awards was $10.6 million.

Stock-Based Compensation

Total stock-based compensation expense was $47.5 million and $120.3 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, respectively, and $35.6 million and $101.2 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, respectively.

Stock-based compensation expense is included in the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income as shown in the following table:

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
(In thousands)	2026	2025	2026	2025
Cost of revenues	$ 36	$ 28	$ 90	$ 72
Research and development	30,977	22,821	80,361	61,115
Sales and marketing	2,495	1,633	6,299	4,657
General and administrative	13,969	11,083	33,584	35,331
Total	$ 47,477	$ 35,565	$ 120,334	$ 101,175

Nominal amounts of stock-based compensation expense are capitalized into intangible assets for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025.

Common Stock Repurchases

In February 2026, Duolingo's Board of Directors authorized a share repurchase program of up to $400 million. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, the Company repurchased a total of 48 thousand and 743 thousand shares, respectively, of the Company's Class A common stock through open market purchases at an average per share price of $132.68 and $103.21, respectively, for a total repurchase price of $6.4 million and $76.7 million, respectively. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, 51 thousand and 734 thousand of these shares were retired, respectively. The cost of the remaining 9 thousand shares is recorded as treasury stock in the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets as of September 30, 2026. As of September 30, 2026, $323.3 million of the total amount authorized to be repurchased remained available.

10. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Legal Proceedings— From time to time, the Company may become involved in various legal proceedings in the ordinary course of its business and may be subject to third-party infringement claims. Legal costs incurred in connection with the resolution of claims and lawsuits are generally expensed as incurred and are included in General and administrative expense within our Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income. The Company establishes reserves for the outcome of litigation where losses are deemed probable and reasonably estimable. The Company's assessment of the current exposure could change in the event of the discovery of additional facts with respect to legal matters pending against the Company or determinations by judges, juries, administrative agencies or other finders of fact that are not in accordance with the Company's evaluation of claims. Actual liabilities may exceed the amounts reserved, and there can be no assurance that final resolution of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. During 2026, the Company accrued approximately $5.0 million for certain proposed legal settlement charges, representing the Company's expected amount of the total settlement obligation, with the remainder expected to be funded by insurance. This amount is not material to the Company's financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

Letters of Credit— The Company has a standby letter of credit obtained in connection with an operating lease. This letter of credit acts as security for the faithful performance by the Company of all terms, covenants and conditions of the lease agreement. The amount of the letter of credit is equal to six months' rent of $0.4 million, totaling $2.7 million. The cash collateral for the letter of credit has been recognized as restricted cash in the Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet and is equivalent to 103% of the letter of credit and totaled $2.7 million.

11. EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN

The Company sponsors a profit sharing plan with an Internal Revenue Code Section 401(k) feature, the Duolingo Retirement Trust (the "Plan"), for eligible employees. The Plan, effective January 1, 2021, provides for Company safe harbor matching contributions of 100% of the first 4% of the employees' elective deferrals and 50% of the next 2%, with vesting starting upon the first day of employment. The Company also has the option to make discretionary matching or profit sharing contributions. The Company made safe harbor matching contributions of approximately $2.4 million and $7.1 million during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, respectively, and $2.2 million and $6.2 million during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, respectively. The Company did not make any discretionary matching or profit sharing contributions during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 or 2025.

12. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Basic net income per share attributable to common stockholders is calculated by dividing net income by the weighted-average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period, less shares subject to repurchase. Diluted net income per share is calculated by giving effect to all potentially dilutive common stock equivalents.

The rights of Class A and Class B common stock are identical, except with respect to voting and conversion. As a result, undistributed earnings are allocated on a proportional basis and net income per share is the same for both classes.

The computation of basic and diluted earnings per share attributable to common stockholders is as follows:

(In thousands, except per share data)	Three Months Ended September 30, 2026	Three Months Ended September 30, 2025	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2026	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2025

Diluted income per common share	$ 0.54	$ 5.95	$ 2.08	$ 7.63

(1) The Company had 0.5 million options outstanding as of September 30, 2026. The estimated dilutive effect is calculated as the number of shares expected to be issued upon vesting or exercise, adjusted for the strike price proceeds that are received by the Company and assumed to be used to repurchase shares of Duolingo common stock.

13. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

On October 7, 2026, a putative shareholder class action was filed in the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania captioned City of Dearborn Heights Act 345 Police & Fire Retirement System v. Duolingo, Inc., et al., Case No. 26-cv-02197 (W.D. Pa.) (the "Securities Class Action"). The complaint names the Company and certain of its current and former executive officers as defendants and alleges violations of Sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Exchange Act. The complaint seeks unspecified damages, as well as attorneys' fees and costs. Motions to be appointed lead plaintiff are due December 7, 2026. The Company intends to defend against the claims in the Securities Class Action vigorously.

The results of any current or future litigation cannot be predicted with certainty, and regardless of the outcome, any litigation could have an adverse impact on the Company as a result of defense costs, settlement, judgments, the diversion of management resources, and other factors. The Company has not recorded any accrual for a contingent liability associated with these legal proceedings.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

The following discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with our Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements and related notes included elsewhere in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, the audited consolidated financial statements and related notes included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K and in Part II, Item 7. "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" of our Annual Report on Form 10-K. The following discussion contains forward-looking statements, such as those relating to our plans, objectives, expectations, intentions, and beliefs, that involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Our actual results could differ materially from these forward-looking statements as a result of many factors, including those discussed in “Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements,” and included elsewhere in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, and in Part I, Item 1A. “Risk Factors,” and Part II, Item 7. “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” of our Annual Report on Form 10-K. Our historical results are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for any periods in the future.

Amounts reported in millions are rounded based on the amounts in thousands. As a result, the sum of the components reported in millions may not equal the total amount reported in millions due to rounding. In addition, percentages presented are calculated from the underlying numbers in thousands and may not add to their respective totals due to rounding.

Overview

Our flagship app has become the world’s most popular way to learn languages and the top-grossing Education app in the App Stores, offering over 250 total language courses to over 64 million daily active users for the three months ended September 30, 2026. We believe that we have become the preeminent online destination for language learning due to our beautifully designed products, exceptional user engagement, and demonstrated learning efficacy.

Key Operating Metrics and Non-GAAP Financial Measures

We regularly review a number of key operating metrics and non-GAAP financial measures to evaluate our business, measure our performance, identify trends, prepare financial projections and make business decisions. The measures set forth below should be considered in addition to, not as a substitute for or in isolation from, our financial results prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the U.S. (“GAAP”). Daily active users (DAUs), along with paid subscribers, subscription bookings and total bookings, are operating metrics that help inform management about the underlying growth in users of our platform, and are a measure of our monetization efforts. To calculate the year-over-year change in DAUs for a given period, we subtract the average for the same period in the previous year from the average for the same period in the current year and divide the result by the average for the same period in the previous year. Other companies, including companies in our industry, may calculate these measures differently or not at all, which reduces their usefulness as comparative measures.

	Three Months Ended September 30,
(In millions)	2026	2025
Operating Metrics
Daily active users (DAUs) (1)	64.9	50.5
Paid subscribers (at period end)	13.1	11.5

(1) We primarily evaluate user engagement using DAUs, with MAUs as a supplementary metric. MAUs were 153.1 million and 135.3 million for the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

(2) During the three months ended September 30, 2025, the Company released the valuation allowance previously recorded against its federal and state deferred tax assets, resulting in a one-time income-tax benefit, net of a return-to-provision adjustment, in the period of $222.7 million.

Operating Metrics

Daily active users (DAUs). DAUs are defined as unique users who engage with our Duolingo App or the learning section of our website each calendar day. DAUs are reported for a measurement period by taking the average of the DAUs for each day in that measurement period. The measurement period for DAUs is the three months ended September 30, 2026 and the same period in the prior year where applicable, and the analysis of results is based on those periods. DAUs are a measure of the consistent engagement of our global user community on Duolingo.

For the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, we had approximately 64.9 million and 50.5 million DAUs, respectively, representing an increase of 29%, driven largely by an increase in retention of current users. We grew DAUs through a combination of product initiatives and marketing. Product improvements, such as making the app more social and engaging, helped attract new users, retain existing users, and reengage former users, while marketing expanded our reach.

Paid Subscribers. Paid subscribers are defined as users who pay for access to any Duolingo subscription offering and had an active subscription as of the end of the measurement period. Each unique user account is treated as a single paid subscriber regardless of whether such user purchases multiple subscriptions, and the count of paid subscribers does not include users who are currently on a free trial or who are non-paying members of a family plan.

As of September 30, 2026 and 2025, we had approximately 13.1 million and 11.5 million paid subscribers, respectively, representing an increase of 14%. We grew paid subscribers through product initiatives designed to make our subscription offerings more appealing, which helped attract new subscribers and retain existing subscribers.

Subscription Bookings and Total Bookings. Subscription bookings represent the amounts we receive from a purchase of any Duolingo subscription offering. Total bookings include subscription bookings, income from advertising networks for advertisements served to our users, purchases of the Duolingo English Test, and in-app purchases of virtual goods ("IAPs"). We believe bookings provide an indication of trends in our operating results, including cash flows, that are not necessarily reflected in our revenues because we recognize subscription revenues ratably over the lifetime of a subscription, the majority of which are twelve months in duration.

For the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, we generated $278.4 million and $240.3 million of subscription bookings, respectively, representing an increase of $38.1 million, or 16%. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, we generated $796.7 million and $699.7 million of subscription bookings, respectively, representing an increase of $97.0 million, or 14%. Both increases were driven by growth in volume and price of subscriptions sold.

For the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, we generated $316.1 million and $281.9 million of total bookings, respectively, representing an increase of $34.2 million, or 12%. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, we generated $913.6 million and $821.6 million of total bookings, respectively, representing an increase of $92.1 million, or 11%. Both increases were primarily driven by growth in subscription bookings.

Monthly active users (MAUs). MAUs are defined as unique users who engage with our Duolingo App or the learning section of our website each month. MAUs are reported for a measurement period by taking the average of the MAUs for each calendar month in that measurement period. The measurement period for MAUs is the three months ended September 30, 2026 and the same period in the prior year where applicable, and the analysis of results is based on those periods. MAUs are a supplemental measure and help illustrate the size of our global active user community on Duolingo.

For the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, we had approximately 153.1 million and 135.3 million MAUs, respectively, representing an increase of 13%. We grew MAUs through the same product and marketing initiatives as DAUs.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

We use certain non-GAAP financial measures to supplement our reported financial results, which are presented in accordance with GAAP. These non-GAAP financial measures include Adjusted EBITDA, free cash flow and constant-currency measures. We use these non-GAAP financial measures for financial and operational decision-making and as a means to evaluate period-to-period comparisons. By excluding certain items that may not be indicative of our recurring core operating results, we believe that Adjusted EBITDA, free cash flow and constant-currency provide meaningful supplemental information regarding our performance. The effect of currency exchange rates on our business is an important factor in understanding period-to-period comparisons. We use non-GAAP constant-currency measures and non-GAAP percentage change in constant-currency measures for financial and operational decision-making and as a means to evaluate period-to-period comparisons. Accordingly, we believe these non-GAAP financial measures are useful to investors and others because they allow for additional information with respect to financial measures used by management in its financial and operational decision-making and they may be used by our institutional investors and the analyst community to help them analyze the health of our business. However, there are a number of limitations related to the use of non-GAAP financial measures, and these non-GAAP financial measures should be considered in addition to, not as a substitute for or in isolation from, our financial results prepared in accordance with GAAP. Other companies, including companies in our industry, may calculate these non-GAAP financial measures differently or not at all, which reduces their usefulness as comparative measures.

Adjusted EBITDA. Adjusted EBITDA is defined as net income excluding interest income, income taxes, depreciation and amortization, stock-based compensation expenses related to equity awards, including employer payroll taxes related to equity transactions, acquisition transaction and integration costs, acquisition earn-out costs, and impairment of capitalized software. Adjusted EBITDA is used by management to evaluate the financial performance of our business and we present Adjusted EBITDA because we believe it is helpful in highlighting trends in our operating results and that it is frequently used by analysts, investors and other interested parties to evaluate companies in our industry. The following table presents a reconciliation of our net income, the most directly comparable financial measure presented in accordance with GAAP, to Adjusted EBITDA.

(1) During the three months ended September 30, 2025, the Company released the valuation allowance previously recorded against its federal and state deferred tax assets, resulting in a one-time income-tax benefit, net of a return-to-provision adjustment, in the period of $222.7 million.

(2) In addition to stock-based compensation expense of $47.5 million and $35.6 million for the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively, and $120.3 million and $101.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, respectively, this includes costs incurred related to taxes paid on equity transactions as follows:

(In thousands)	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2026	2025	2026	2025
Research and development	$ 750	$ 981	$ 1,318	$ 3,745

(4) Represents costs incurred related to the earn-out payments on acquisitions, which are included within General and administrative expense within our Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income.

(5) Represents impairment of capitalized software, which is included within Research and development expense within our Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Income.

For the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, we generated net income of $27.2 million and $292.2 million, respectively, representing a decrease of $265.0 million. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, we generated net income of $103.8 million and $372.1 million, respectively, representing a decrease of $268.3 million. The decrease in net income for both periods was primarily due to the one-time income tax benefit of $222.7 million recognized in the three months ended September 30, 2025, resulting from the release of the valuation allowance previously recorded against our federal and state deferred tax assets, net of a return-to-provision adjustment.

For the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, we generated Adjusted EBITDA of $78.7 million and $80.0 million, respectively, representing a decrease of $1.3 million. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, we generated Adjusted EBITDA of $239.5 million and $221.5 million, respectively, representing an increase of $17.9 million. Adjusted EBITDA was relatively flat in the three months ended September 30, 2026 as revenue growth was largely offset by increased costs. In the nine months ended September 30, 2026, the increase was primarily driven by revenue growth that outpaced increases in costs.

Free Cash Flow. Free cash flow is defined as net cash provided by operating activities, less capitalized software development costs and purchases of intangible assets, and less purchases of property and equipment. We believe that free cash flow is a measure of liquidity that provides useful information to our management, investors and others in understanding and evaluating the strength of our liquidity and future ability to generate cash that can be used for strategic opportunities or investing in our business. Free cash flow has certain limitations in that it does not represent our residual cash flow for discretionary expenditures and our non-discretionary commitments. The following table presents a reconciliation of net cash provided by operating activities, the most directly comparable financial measure calculated in accordance with GAAP, to free cash flow:

(In thousands)	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2026	2025	2026	2025
Net cash provided by operating activities	$ 89,444	$ 84,239	$ 328,475	$ 280,545
Less: Capitalized software development costs and purchases of intangible assets	(3,131)	(2,021)	(8,718)	(6,484)
Less: Purchases of property and equipment	(10,973)	(4,862)	(18,001)	(7,369)
Free cash flow	$ 75,340	$ 77,356	$ 301,756	$ 266,692

For the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, we generated $89.4 million and $84.2 million of net cash provided by operating activities, respectively, representing an increase of $5.2 million. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, we generated $328.5 million and $280.5 million of net cash provided by operating activities, respectively, representing an increase of $47.9 million with the majority of the increase attributable to the year-over-year improvement in working capital contributions. The remaining change is primarily the net effect of noncash adjustments and net income.

For the three months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, we generated $75.3 million and $77.4 million of free cash flow, respectively, representing a decrease of $2.0 million. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, we generated $301.8 million and $266.7 million of free cash flow, respectively, representing an increase of $35.1 million. Changes in free cash flow for both periods were primarily driven by changes in cash provided by operating activities and higher capital expenditures related to the expansion of our office footprints and capitalized software development costs. Higher capital expenditures more than offset the change in operating cash flows for the three-month period and partially offset it for the nine-month period.

Constant-Currency. The effect of currency exchange rates on our business is an important factor in understanding period-to-period comparisons. We use non-GAAP percentage change in constant-currency revenues and bookings, which exclude the impact of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, for financial and operational decision-making and as a means to evaluate period-to-period comparisons. We believe this information is useful to investors to facilitate comparisons and better identify trends in our business. The impact of changes in foreign currency may vary significantly from period to period, and such changes generally are outside of the control of our management. We calculate constant-currency revenues by translating current-period foreign currency revenues using prior-year exchange rates applied consistently over the full revenue recognition period. We calculate constant-currency bookings by using current-period foreign currency bookings and translating them to constant currency using prior-year comparable period exchange rates. The constant-currency percentage change for revenues and bookings is calculated by dividing the difference between the constant-currency amount and the prior-year comparable period amount by the prior-year comparable period amount.

The following table provides the changes in bookings and revenues on a reported basis and constant-currency basis:

	Three Months Ended September 30,				Nine Months Ended September 30,

Components of Our Results of Operations

Revenue

We generate revenue primarily from the sale of subscriptions. Our subscription agreements are primarily monthly or annual, with the family plan offered as an annual subscription. We also generate revenue from advertising, the in-app sale of virtual goods, and the Duolingo English Test. We may run experiments that result in a different mix of revenue from these levers in the future.

Cost of Revenues

Cost of revenues predominantly consists of third-party payment processing fees charged by various distribution channels in addition to hosting fees and third-party AI costs. To a much lesser extent, cost of revenues includes customer support costs, such as contractor fees, wages and stock-based compensation for certain employees working in customer support. It also includes the amortization of revenue-generating capitalized software, and depreciation of certain property and equipment.

We intend to continue to invest in the development and enhancement of our products to expand their capabilities and allow our users to realize the full benefit of our offerings. The level, timing, and relative investment in these areas could affect our cost of revenues in the future.

Gross Profit and Gross Margin

Gross profit represents revenues less cost of revenue. Gross margin is gross profit expressed as a percentage of revenue. Our gross profit may fluctuate from period to period as our revenues fluctuate, and also as a result of the timing and amount of investments we make in items related to cost of revenue.

Operating Expenses

Our operating expenses consist of research and development, sales and marketing, and general and administrative expenses. Personnel costs are the most significant component of operating expenses and consist of salaries, benefits, and stock-based compensation expense. Operating expenses also include overhead costs for facilities, including depreciation expense.

Research and Development. We invest heavily in research and development to create new products and product features that are intended to help us grow our user base, engage our users, monetize our users, and teach our users. This, in turn, can impact the growth in, and lifetime value of, our paid subscribers, as well as increased advertising revenue from impressions from our free users. Expenses are primarily made up of costs incurred for the development of new and improved products and features in our applications during the preliminary product development stage. Such expenses include employee-related compensation, including stock-based compensation, of engineers, designers, and product managers, in addition to materials, travel and direct costs associated with the design, required testing of our platform and depreciation of certain property and equipment. We expect engineers, designers, and product managers to represent a significant portion of our employees for the foreseeable future. We typically capitalize a portion of research and development costs once the product has reached application development phase, mostly consisting of wages, each period into capitalized software when the work is specific to launching a new product, or making major upgrades to our existing products or platforms. We regularly test product improvements with our users. Many of these tests start by making small changes in the product that affect small numbers of users. As the tests evolve, they can require increasing investment and can impact more users. This process of constant testing is how we implement many of our new products and improvements to our platform and, in total, require large investments and involve substantial time and risks to develop and launch. Some of these products and product improvements may not be well received or may take a long time for users to adopt. As a result, the impact resulting from our research and development investments may be difficult to forecast.

Sales and Marketing. Sales and marketing expenses are expensed as incurred and consist primarily of new user acquisition, brand marketing, digital and social media content, and employee-related compensation, including stock-based compensation, for personnel engaged in sales and marketing functions, amortization of non-revenue-generating capitalized software used to promote Duolingo and depreciation of certain property and equipment.

General and Administrative. General and administrative expenses primarily consist of employee-related compensation, including stock-based compensation, for management and administrative functions, including our finance and accounting, legal, and people teams. General and administrative expenses also include certain professional services fees, general corporate and director and officer insurance, our facilities costs, public company costs to comply with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and the Listing Rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC, and other general overhead costs that support our operations.

Interest Income

Interest income consists of income earned on our cash and money market funds included in cash and cash equivalents and income earned and net accretion on our marketable securities.

Other (expense) income, net

Other (expense) income, net consists primarily of foreign currency exchange gains and losses.

Income taxes

Income taxes represent the tax impact associated with our operations under the tax laws of the jurisdictions in which we operate. In addition to the U.S., we also operate in foreign jurisdictions that have different statutory rates. Our effective tax rate may vary based on the relative proportion of foreign to domestic income, the tax effects of stock-based compensation (which can fluctuate with our stock price), and changes in tax laws.

Revenues

Revenue increased by $37.3 million, or 14%, to $309.0 million during the three months ended September 30, 2026, from revenue of $271.7 million in the prior-year period. Revenue increased by $144.7 million, or 19%, to $899.4 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, from revenue of $754.7 million in the prior-year period.

The following table provides the changes in revenues by product type:

	Three Months Ended September 30,				Nine Months Ended September 30,

Total revenues	$309,007	$271,713	$37,294	14%	$899,428	$754,721	$144,707	19%

The main drivers of the increases were:

- Subscription revenue increased by $40.5 million, or 18%, to $270.0 million during the three months ended September 30, 2026, and by $147.8 million, or 23%, to $778.9 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, primarily due to growth in the average number of paid subscribers.
- Other revenue decreased by $3.2 million, or 8%, to $39.0 million during the three months ended September 30, 2026, and by $3.1 million, or 2%, to $120.5 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026. The decrease in the three months ended September 30, 2026 was primarily due to decreased IAP revenue. The decrease in the nine months ended September 30, 2026 was primarily driven by lower IAP revenue, partially offset by higher advertising revenue.

Cost of Revenues and Gross Margin. Total gross margin increased to 72.9% during the three months ended September 30, 2026, from 72.5% in the prior-year period. Gross margin increased to 72.8% during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, from 72.0% in the prior-year period. The increase in both periods was primarily attributable to an increase in subscription gross margin, reflecting lower feature based AI costs.

The following table provides the change in cost of revenue, along with related gross margins:

	Three Months Ended September 30,						Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2026		2025		Change		2026		2025		Change
(In thousands, except gross margin)	Costs	Gross Margin	Costs	Gross Margin	Costs	Basis Points	Costs	Gross Margin	Costs	Gross Margin	Costs	Basis Points

Operating Expenses

Research and Development. Research and development expense increased by $25.0 million, or 30%, to $107.7 million during the three months ended September 30, 2026, from $82.7 million in the prior-year period. The increase was primarily due to higher net personnel costs of $19.8 million, driven by a bonus plan tied to DAU growth of $8.9 million, growth in headcount, and increased stock-based compensation expenses related to equity awards of $7.9 million, as well as increased software and third-party AI costs of $3.2 million.

Research and development expense increased by $56.2 million, or 25%, to $282.9 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, from $226.8 million in the prior-year period. The increase was primarily due to higher net personnel costs of $43.4 million, driven by a bonus plan tied to DAU growth of $8.9 million, growth in headcount, and increased stock-based compensation expenses related to equity awards of $16.8 million, as well as increased software and third-party AI costs of $8.7 million.

Sales and Marketing. Sales and marketing expense increased by $7.1 million, or 20%, to $42.2 million during the three months ended September 30, 2026, from $35.1 million in the prior-year period. This increase was mainly due to increased personnel costs of $3.7 million, including $1.1 million related to a bonus plan tied to DAU growth and increased advertising costs of $2.6 million.

Sales and marketing expense increased by $30.1 million, or 33%, to $121.4 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, from $91.3 million in the prior-year period. This increase was mainly due to increased personnel costs of $6.8 million, including $1.1 million related to a bonus plan tied to DAU growth and increased advertising costs of $21.7 million.

General and Administrative. General and administrative expense increased by $7.1 million, or 16%, to $51.0 million during the three months ended September 30, 2026, from $44.0 million in the prior-year period. This increase was primarily due to higher personnel costs of $5.1 million, including $1.5 million related to a bonus plan tied to DAU growth.

General and administrative expense increased by $14.6 million, or 11%, to $148.0 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, from $133.4 million in the prior-year period. This increase was primarily due to increased legal costs of $5.5 million, largely related to proposed legal settlement charges, and higher facilities and office expenses of $5.0 million. Personnel costs remained relatively flat, as a decrease of $1.7 million in stock-based compensation expense as a result of the PSU award modification was largely offset by an increase of $1.5 million driven by a bonus plan tied to DAU growth.

Interest Income

Interest income increased by $0.6 million, or 5%, to $12.4 million during the three months ended September 30, 2026, from $11.8 million in the prior-year period. Interest income increased by $2.4 million, or 7%, to $36.1 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, from $33.6 million in the prior-year period. Both increases were due to higher average interest-bearing balances, partially offset by lower interest rates.

Other (expense) income, net

Other expense, net, increased by $0.6 million to $1.1 million during the three months ended September 30, 2026, from $0.5 million in the prior-year period. For the nine months ended September 30, 2026, we recorded other expense, net of $2.3 million, compared to other income, net of $2.2 million in the prior-year period. These changes were primarily due to foreign currency exchange fluctuations.

Income taxes

The income tax provision was $8.4 million and $32.7 million during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, respectively, compared to a benefit of $245.7 million and $244.2 million during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025, respectively. This current-year provision was primarily due to discrete tax expense related to stock-based compensation activity in the current period compared to benefits in the prior-year period. The income tax benefit for the three and nine months ended

September 30, 2025, was primarily related to the release of our U.S. valuation allowance on certain deferred tax assets and other discrete tax items.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We finance our operations primarily through revenue and the net proceeds we have received from the issuance of equity.

As of September 30, 2026, we had $1,239.6 million in cash and cash equivalents and $134.3 million of short-term investments. Our cash and cash equivalents primarily consist of bank deposits and money market funds. Our short-term investments consist mainly of corporate debt securities, U.S. Treasury securities and commercial paper.

We believe that our existing cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments and cash flow from operations will be sufficient to support working capital and capital expenditure requirements, and any future share repurchases, for at least the next 12 months. Our future capital requirements will depend on many factors, including our subscription growth rate and renewal activity, the timing of cash received from our payment processing platforms, the expansion and efficacy of our sales and marketing investments, the research and development investment related to the introduction of new products and the enhancements to existing products, and the current uncertainty in the global markets impacting, for example, consumer spending, inflation and foreign currency exchange rates. If we cannot meet our future capital requirements, we may be required to seek additional liquidity. If we are unable to raise additional capital or generate cash flows necessary to expand our operations and invest in continued innovation, we may not be able to compete successfully, which would harm our business and financial condition and results of operations.

In February 2026, Duolingo's Board of Directors authorized a share repurchase program of up to $400 million. Repurchases under the program may be made from time to time in the open market or through privately negotiated transactions, pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 trading plans or other available means, each in compliance with Rule 10b-18 under the Exchange Act. The actual timing, number and value of shares repurchased is subject to various factors such as market conditions, the Company's capital and liquidity positions, contractual requirements and other considerations. The timing and amount of any repurchases will be determined at the Company's discretion, and the program does not obligate the Company to acquire any particular amount of shares. The program has no expiration date and may be terminated, modified or discontinued at any time.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2026, the Company repurchased a total of 743,049 shares of the Company's Class A common stock through open market purchases at an average per share price of $103.21 for a total of $76.7 million.

A substantial source of our operating cash receipts comes from customer payments received in advance of revenue recognition, primarily related to subscriptions. These advance payments are recorded as deferred revenues within current liabilities on our Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets and subsequently recognized as revenue in accordance with our revenue recognition policy. As of September 30, 2026, our deferred revenues balance was $513.6 million and is expected to be recognized as revenue within the next 12 months, provided all other revenue recognition criteria have been met.

The following table summarizes our cash flows for the periods presented:

(In thousands)	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2026	2025
Net cash provided by operating activities	$ 328,475	$ 280,545
Net cash used for investing activities	(35,980)	(63,996)
Net cash (used for) provided by financing activities	(89,277)	9,202
Net increase in cash, cash equivalents and restricted cash	$ 203,218	$ 225,751

Operating Activities

Cash flows from operating activities can fluctuate significantly from period to period due to timing of payments and cash collections. Our largest source of operating cash is cash collection from sales of subscriptions to our users. Our primary uses of cash from operating activities are for personnel expenses, marketing expenses, hosting expenses, and overhead expenses.

Cash provided by operating activities increased by $47.9 million, or 17%, to $328.5 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, from $280.5 million in the prior-year period. The increase was primarily driven by favorable changes in working capital. The remaining change is primarily the net effect of noncash adjustments and net income.

Investing Activities

Cash used for investing activities decreased by $28.0 million to $36.0 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2026, from $64.0 million in the prior-year period. This decrease was primarily due to lower acquisition activity of $28.1 million and higher net maturities of investments of $12.8 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, partially offset by a $12.9 million increase in capital expenditures.

Financing Activities

Cash used for financing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2026 was due to repurchases of common stock of $76.5 million in addition to taxes paid on the net-share settlements of share-based compensation awards of $18.8 million. These amounts were partially offset by proceeds from exercises of stock options of $6.0 million. Cash provided by financing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2025 was due to proceeds from exercises of stock options of $9.7 million.

Critical Accounting Estimates

Our Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements and the related notes thereto included elsewhere in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q are prepared in accordance with GAAP. The preparation of Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements also requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, costs and expenses, and related disclosures. We base our estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ significantly from the estimates made by management. To the extent that there are differences between our estimates and actual results, our future financial statement presentation, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows will be affected.

There have been no material changes to our critical accounting policies and estimates as compared to those described in “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” set forth in our Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

See Note 1, “Description of the Business and Basis of Presentation,” and Note 2, “Summary of Significant Accounting Policies,” in the notes to our Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements included in Part I, Item 1 of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for a discussion of recent accounting pronouncements.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Interest Rate Risk

As of September 30, 2026, we had $998.9 million of cash equivalents invested in money market funds and $244.4 million of investments mainly in corporate debt securities, U.S. Treasury securities, asset-backed securities and commercial paper. Our cash and cash equivalents are held for working capital purposes in addition to future investments in our product. We do not enter into investments for trading or speculative purposes. Our investments are exposed to market risk due to a fluctuation in interest rates, which may affect our interest income and the fair market value of our investments. As of September 30, 2026, a hypothetical 10% relative change in interest rates would not have a material impact on our Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

Foreign Currency Exchange Risk

Our reporting currency and the functional currency of our wholly owned foreign subsidiaries is the U.S. dollar. Certain of our payment providers translate our payments from local currency into USD at or before settlement, which means that during periods of a strengthening U.S. dollar, our international receipts could be reduced. Certain of our operating expenses are denominated in the currencies of the countries in which our operations are located, which are primarily in the U.S., China, Germany and the United Kingdom. Our consolidated results of operations and cash flows are therefore subject to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates and may be adversely affected by changes in those rates. In addition, changes in foreign currency exchange rates can affect the period-over-period comparability of our operating results and may result in foreign currency transaction gains and losses. To date, we have not entered into any hedging arrangements with respect to foreign currency risk or other derivative financial instruments, although we may choose to do so in the future. A hypothetical 10% increase or decrease in the relative value of the U.S. dollar to other currencies would not have a material effect on our operating results.

Inflation Risk

Inflationary factors such as increases in costs may adversely affect our results of operations. We do not believe that inflation has had a material effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations to date. If our costs were to become subject to significant inflationary pressures, we may not be able to fully offset such higher costs through price increases. Our inability or failure to do so could harm our business, financial condition or results of operations.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Limitations on Effectiveness of Controls and Procedures

Our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting are designed to provide reasonable assurance of achieving their desired objectives. Management does not expect, however, that our disclosure controls and procedures or our internal control over financial reporting will prevent or detect all error and fraud. Any control system, no matter how well designed and operated, is based upon certain assumptions and can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that its objectives will be met. Further, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that misstatements due to error or fraud will not occur or that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within the Company have been detected.

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our management, with the participation of our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures, as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act, as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. Based on that evaluation, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by us in reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is (i) recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC rules and forms and (ii) accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting, as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act, during the three months ended September 30, 2026 that materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Part II Other Information

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

From time to time we may be involved in claims and proceedings arising in the course of our business. The outcome of any such claims or proceedings, regardless of the merits, is inherently uncertain. We are not currently party to any material legal proceedings. For further information, please see Part I, Item 1 Financial Statements – Note 10, “Commitments and Contingencies” and Note 13, “Subsequent Events”, which are incorporated herein.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

The Company's risk factors are described in Part I, Item 1A, "Risk Factors" of the Annual Report on Form 10-K. These factors could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations, and could cause our actual results to differ materially from our historical results or the results contemplated by any forward-looking statements contained in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. There have been no material changes from the risk factors previously disclosed under the heading “Risk Factors” in the Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

The following table summarizes our share repurchase activity for the three months ended September 30, 2026:

	Total Number of Shares Purchased [1]	Average Price Paid Per Share [2]	Total Number of Shares Purchased as Part of the Share Repurchase Program [1]	Approximate Dollar Value of Shares That May Yet Be Purchased Under the Plan [1]
				(In thousands)
July 1 - 31, 2026	13,247	$ 122.12	13,247	$ 328,103
August 1 - 31, 2026	12,760	$ 129.11	12,760	$ 326,456
September 1 - 30, 2026	22,412	$ 140.96	22,412	$ 323,296
	48,419		48,419

(1) On February 26, 2026, Duolingo’s Board of Directors authorized a share repurchase program of up to $400 million. Repurchases under the program may be made from time to time in the open market or through privately negotiated transactions, pursuant to Rule 10b5-1 trading plans or other available means, each in compliance with Rule 10b-18 under the Exchange Act. The actual timing, number and value of shares repurchased is subject to various factors such as market conditions, our capital and liquidity positions, contractual requirements and other considerations. The timing and amount of any repurchases will be determined at our discretion, and the program does not obligate us to acquire any particular amount of shares. The program has no expiration date and may be terminated, modified or discontinued at any time.

(2) Average price paid per share excludes broker commissions and other costs of execution.

Item 3. Defaults Upon Senior Securities

None.

Item 4. Mine Safety Disclosures

Not applicable.

Item 5. Other Information

(a) None.

(b) None.

(c) Trading Plans

On September 4, 2026, Natalie Glance, Chief Engineering Officer, entered into a 10b5-1 sales plan (the “Glance 10b5-1 Sales Plan”) intended to satisfy the affirmative defense of Rule 10b5-1(c) under the Exchange Act, providing for (i) the sale of the net number of shares of Class A common stock underlying 19,283 unvested restricted stock units received after giving effect to the number of shares automatically sold to satisfy tax withholding obligations on each applicable vesting date (such total number of shares covered under clause (i) is not determinable) and (ii) the sale of 16,866 shares of Class A common stock. The Glance 10b5-1 Sales Plan will remain in effect until the earlier of (1) December 31, 2027, (2) the date on which all trades set forth in the Glance 10b5-1 Sales Plan have been executed, or (3) such time as the Glance 10b5-1 Sales Plan is otherwise terminated according to its terms.

No other “officer” (as defined in Rule 16a-1(f) under the Exchange Act) or director of the Company adopted, modified or terminated “Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangements” and/or “non-Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangements” (each as defined in Item 408 of Regulation S-K) during the three months ended September 30, 2026.

   (b) Designed such internal control over financial reporting, or caused such internal control over financial reporting to be designed under our supervision, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;

   (c) Evaluated the effectiveness of the registrant's disclosure controls and procedures and presented in this report our conclusions about the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this report based on such evaluation; and

   (d) Disclosed in this report any change in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the registrant's most recent fiscal quarter (the registrant's fourth fiscal quarter in the case of an annual report) that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the registrant's internal control over financial reporting; and

5. The registrant's other certifying officer(s) and I have disclosed, based on our most recent evaluation of internal control over financial reporting, to the registrant's auditors and the audit committee of the registrant's board of directors (or persons performing the equivalent functions):

   (a) All significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the registrant's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information; and

   (b) Any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting.
